

Oracle DBA

Location: Reading/Newbury/London

Salary: £30,000 to £55,000

Job Type: Permanent

About the job

Role Requirements

- Install, create and maintain all databases in line with industry best practice
- Ensure that databases maintain acceptable levels of performance, integrity and security in line with agreed organisational standards
- System monitoring and troubleshooting issues in a timely manner to ensure provision of services within SLA
- Perform Capacity planning, upgrades, migrations and patching of databases and servers
- Provide recommendations when required as to suitable design of databases
- Establish the needs of users and monitor user access and security.
- Work with the business to provide database solutions as necessary.
- Provide on-call support as required

Skills, Experience & Background

- Extensive experience in Oracle Database installation, administration and security
- Significant experience in recent Oracle database versions
- Excellent understanding of Oracle High Availability and Failover (Dataguard, GRID)
- Solid foundation in sizing, capacity planning, backup, cloning and disaster recovery planning for multi-terabyte databases
- Thorough understanding of optimisation and performance tuning
- Excellent understanding of Oracle Objects (including PL/SQL, packages, procedures, functions and triggers etc)
- Good understanding of Solaris O/S (ZFS and installation)
- Develops others by sharing own experience and expertise, Setting an example as a team player, respectful of others in the organisation with a focus on overall business objectives.